PH: 1-888-668-6466

a. It is understood that this agreement shall indemnify Kulture Consulting, LLC and any or all of its shareholders, employees, contractors, and individual consultants from any and all claims arising out of Kulture Consulting, LLC's services to and on behalf of LabCorp.

b. It is further understood and agreed that the above paragraphs shall apply to the parties as/if the so-called Employee Free Choice Act (or any variant) is legislated or otherwise enacted through regulatory fiat to include monetary fines/penalties.

Invoice & Payment Policy

- As per prior discussion, Kulture Consulting services are based on a per hour, per consultant basis, which includes travel plus actual and reasonable expenses.
 - 1) Payment for our services is due as our invoices are rendered. Our invoices become delinquent if not paid within 30 days of the invoice date. If our invoices are not paid within 30 days, we reserve the right to assess late charges at the rate of 2½ percent per month for all balances not paid in full. Further, we reserve the right to discontinue services until your account is brought current, or we may withdraw from this engagement. If you have any questions related to this, please bring them to our attention immediately.
- This agreement may be terminated, at any time, by either party involved, with payment for work hours expended since the last billing through dates/times of termination, plus actual and reasonable expenses incurred, to be paid in full.

Upon engagement of our services, please acknowledge receipt and approval of the above stipulations regarding representation/consulting services, invoicing, and payment.

While Kulture Consulting and its individual consultants will continually strive to ensure that all services including, but not limited to written materials, speeches, the coaching of managers and supervisors, conversations, discussions, as well as informational meetings for employees will be conducted with the utmost respect and adherence to the law, as applied at the time of engagement of services, the following must be understood and agreed to prior to the performance of services by Kulture Consulting or any of its individual consultants:

1. It should be recognized and acknowledged that, given the aggressiveness of today's union leaders on a national and local level, Unfair Labor Practices (ULPs) and election objections are to be expected in labor campaigns.
2. As part of Kulture Consulting's Client Commitment, efforts will continually be made, in concert with labor counsel, to avert sustained ULP charges and/or election objections.
3. Given the expected increase in pro-union case rulings, it should be expected that Unfair Labor Practices and/or election objections, may be filed and potentially sustained, even on the basis of well-established and/or legally-sanctioned written material, and/or presentations made by persons internal (e.g., supervision/ management) or external (e.g., consultants)
4. Although efforts will continually be made and precautions taken to avert the filing of ULP charges and/or objections, it should be understood that individuals within and/or external to LabCorp have no control to what a union alleges or takes action on through the National Labor Relations Board.
5. Therefore, Kulture Consulting, LLC and any or all of its shareholders, employees, contractors, and/or individual consultants cannot and shall not be held liable, nor accountable, for that which occurs with regard to potential union-filed ULPs and/or election objections.

Consulting Services Agreement by & between

Kulture Consulting, LLC

Laboratory Corporation of America Holdings ("LabCorp")

This agreement is made on April 16, 2015 between Kulture Consulting, LLC and LabCorp and sets forth the terms and conditions for engagement of the services of Kulture Consulting, LLC.

Background & The Current Climate

On January 20, 2009, when President Obama took office, one of the first appointments he announced was the naming of National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) member and former Teamsters attorney Wilma Liebman as chairperson of the NLRB. Since that time, the National Labor Relations Board has become dominated by union attorneys who are using the NLRB as a means of advocating—through rulings and policy-making—for their friends in Big Labor.

This represents a significant and profound shift in the historical and philosophical direction of the NLRB, its policies and its rulings. Given this, unions and their officers, organizers and business agents, knowing that the landscape in Washington is highly favorable to them, are widely utilizing the NLRB's processes to win rulings against employers and their agents that heretofore would have been unattainable.

In light of the political developments that have taken place in Washington, DC, it is incumbent on both parties to this agreement to understand that the legal interpretation of the National Labor Relations Act can—and likely will—change with any ruling that is heard before the NLRB. As a result of this, what may be construed as lawful speech today, may be deemed to be unlawful speech tomorrow.
