LABOR CONSULTING AGREEMENT

The Undersigned does by this agreement consent to the following retainer agreement:

1. The term of the agreement will commence on 7/10/15 and may be terminated at any time by either party by giving written notice to the other party.

2. My duties as a labor attorney/consultant will include only the rendering of labor relations consultation and management services in connection with the Employers labor relations activities. Sanford Rudnick is not a member of any bar association in California or any other state. He is an attorney since he obtained a post graduate degree from law school. Mr. Rudnick is authorized to practice before the NLRB according to Section 102.38 of it's Rules and Regulations. Mr. Rudnick has been practicing before the NLRB for approximately 30 year. Also, H. Sanford & Rudnick & Associates use the services of various law firms at no charge to the Employer concerning the Employer's labor relations.

3. Compensation will be $ 350 per hour and $ 7500 payable in advance as a retainer. Consulting fees and all expenses relating to the case shall be deducted from the amount of the retainer and any fees and costs exceeding the retainer shall be billed weekly on an itemized billing statement unless another retainer is requested. Payment for all services and costs is due upon receipt of each billing invoice either by check or credit card. Cancellation of the Retainer Agreement allows the client future work by a credit of work and not a refund of the balance of the retainer. Once the hours in the retainer are exceeded, another retainer will be remitted to continue working on the case. However, if the retainer is exceeded the client will be billed weekly for work completed and payment is due on receipt. (CAMPAIGN AND NLRB WORK)

4. H. Sanford Rudnick will use its best efforts to represent you and win your case but there is no guarantee of the outcome of your labor relations issue.

5. It is your responsibility to give us accurate information, to provide us with copies of relevant documents, to pay your bills when presented, and to keep us informed of your current information concerning the case. You must read all correspondence that we send you. If you have any questions or objections, you must tell us at once. If we present matters to you for a decision, you must make a decision after a reasonable amount of time.

6.(a) The parties agree that any dispute between the parties shall be resolved informally between the parties which arise out of the agreement. If the dispute cannot be resolved informally, the Employer agrees any controversy or dispute between the parties which shall arise with respect to the Agreement, the interpretation hereof, or any other matter relating hereto, shall be submitted only to arbitration in Walnut Creek, Ca. which the arbitrators are selected as hereinafter provided.

H. SANFORD RUDNICK, J.D.

6. (b) Arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association (the "Rules"), except as specifically provided in this paragraph. The dispute shall be submitted to two arbitrators, each of whom shall have had at least 5 years experience in the labor relations business of Federal Labor Law. One arbitrator shall be selected by each of the parties.

6.(c) In the event that either of the two parties shall not, within 10 days after notification of demand for arbitration hereunder shall not have selected its arbitrator, or cannot mutually agree to an arbitrator, such arbitrator shall be selected by the American Arbitration Association upon receipt of a request thereof by the other party. All submitted matters or any collection demand for arbitration is made in accordance with a specific time schedule adopted by the arbitrator.

6. (d) Each party shall have the opportunity to present evidence and witnesses in accordance with the Rules and schedule adopted by the arbitrator. In the event, any party fails to appear or present evidence, the arbitrator shall render their decision based solely on the information presented by the party who does so appear and present evidence. The determination of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon all the parties and judgment may be entered on any award rendered by the arbitrator in any Federal or State court having jurisdiction. The Employer and H. Sanford Rudnick & Associates shall equally share all the costs of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator, or any other fees incurred in conjunction with the arbitration.

7. Payment of fees shall be billed weekly. Payment is due upon receipt of the weekly invoice and interest of 1% per month of the past amount due will be charged. We require that your bill be current and if it becomes late we will require an additional retainer to continue work. If the invoice is not paid on time a late fee may be imposed.
