9. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether an object of the activities undertaken, is directly or indirectly:

- a. ☐ To persuade employees to exercise or not to exercise, or persuade employees as to the manner of exercising, the right to organize and bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing.
- b. ☒ To supply an employer with information concerning the activities of employees or a labor organization in connection with a labor dispute involving such employer, except information for use solely in conjunction with an administrative or arbitral proceeding or a criminal or civil judicial proceeding.

10. Terms and conditions (Explain in detail; see instructions. Written agreements must be attached.):

The Bradford Group had an engagement with Trojan Labor of Nashville, LLC to provide public relations services at an hourly rate. Jeff Bradford attended a meeting of a group of current and former Trojan Labor employees after there had been a number of media reports, initiated by that group, regarding Trojan Labor. Mr. Bradford's purpose in attending was to address the media, if any media attended, on behalf of Trojan Labor. Mr. Bradford signed in to the meeting as himself, and remained approximately 20 minutes. When it became apparent no media was going to attend, Mr. Bradford left. It was not his purpose to attend to obtain information regarding the activities of the employees attending, although he did hear some information being discussed while he was at the meeting and did pass that information on to Trojan Labor.
