Re: Agreement for Professional Services

Dear Mr. Stammerjohn:

In accordance with our conversation and mutual agreements, this letter will confirm that Interstate Hotels and Resorts/Crossroads Hospitality, dba The Holiday Inn Express (the "Company") has retained The Crossroads Group Labor Relations Consultants ("Consultant") regarding general personnel and labor relations activities related to the N.L.R.B. election campaign at your facility in Shelton, Connecticut.

Our fees are charged on an hourly basis in minimum units of a quarter of an hour for all time actually expended on your behalf. You will receive my personal services, which are billed at $325.00 per hour. Clients are billed at the hourly rate for all time expended on their behalf, plus reasonable and customary out-of-pocket expenses and one-half travel time.

We agree to send you statements clearly showing the basis for our fees and charges by detailing the services rendered and costs incurred on a weekly basis. We will send you statements on a weekly basis and expect to be paid on a weekly basis.

Our firm always strives to offer our clients the greatest value possible by delivering the highest quality services in a timely fashion. In return, we request that upon receipt of our statements, you review them to determine if you have any questions or comments. If so, please call me immediately. Furthermore, we reserve the right to withdraw as your Consultant if you fail to pay our statements and other bills in a timely manner.

Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, its validity, or the breach thereof, shall be settled by binding arbitration in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association (AAA). A single neutral arbitrator shall be appointed in accordance with the AAA Rules to resolve the dispute.

The arbitrator shall be an attorney who is knowledgeable in business and labor laws, and who is experienced in labor relations and union organizing activities involving employers. The arbitration hearing shall be held in Orange County, California. This contract shall be interpreted and governed by the laws of the State of California. The arbitrator shall award to the prevailing party all its costs and fees, including AAA filing, administrative and attorneys' fees.

Judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. Should any party refuse to arbitrate or file a court action regarding a claim, which is subject to arbitration under this Agreement, the other party shall be entitled to recover its costs and reasonable attorneys' fees in enforcing this arbitration agreement in court.

During the course of our representation, we will endeavor to keep you fully advised as to the status and progress of this matter, including our view of your rights and potential liabilities or exposure, and our recommendation as to an appropriate course of action in view of the facts, circumstances and issues involved.

However, we must emphasize that our firm has not made, and cannot make any representations or guarantees regarding the successful outcome of any matter or the actual amount of any fees or costs you will incur. Often, the results in a matter, and the costs and expenses are controlled by external factors beyond our control, including the factual circumstances, course of the campaign or negotiations, etc.

We will send copies of all substantive correspondence and other documents generated in the matter, and I ask that you call me at any time should you wish to discuss our invoices, or any other aspect of this matter.

If the terms and conditions of this letter are satisfactory to you, please evidence your consent to such terms and conditions by signing this letter and returning it to me by mail.

This is a final agreement and this agreement supersedes any other oral or written representations by either the Company or Consultant.
