Mr. Gerry O'Brien

North Oaks, MN 55127

Dear Mr. Gerry O'Brien:

The Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act (LMRDA) provides at Section 203, 29 U.S.C. 433, that employers and labor relations consultants must file reports with the Department of Labor concerning agreements or arrangements pursuant to which the consultant undertakes activities with an object to persuade employees concerning their rights to organize and bargain collectively, or to supply the employer with information concerning the activities of employees or a labor organization in connection with a labor dispute involving the employer. These reports are filed on forms provided by the Department's Office of Labor-Management Standards (OLMS) and are made available to the public on the OLMS website at www.dol.gov/olms.

Any person who undertakes reportable activities pursuant to such an agreement or arrangement must file the Form LM-20 (Agreement and Activities Report) within thirty (30) days after entering into the agreement or arrangement. The Form LM-20 filer must also submit an annual Form LM-21 (Receipts and Disbursements Report) for any fiscal year during which payments were received or disbursements made as a result of such an agreement or arrangement.

Federal law provides for civil enforcement of the reporting requirements, as well as criminal penalties for willful violations.

With respect to consultant reporting required under LMRDA Section 203(b), an indirect party to an agreement is subject to the above filing requirements to the same extent as the principal consultant. The Form LM-20 and LM-21 instructions (page 1) both state that:

A "direct or indirect party" to an agreement or arrangement includes (1) persons who have secured the services of another or of others in connection with an agreement or arrangement of the type referred to in Section 203(b) of the LMRDA, and (2) persons who have undertaken activities at the behest of another or of others with knowledge or reason to believe that they are undertaken as a result of an agreement or arrangement between an employer and any other person.

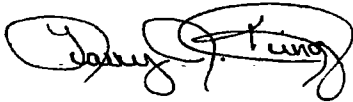

Information provided on a Form LM-20 report(s) filed by CACR, Labor Education Services in Item 11d indicates that you performed reportable activity in connection with such an agreement or arrangement between the consultant and Falck Northern California.

As a result, you must file any required reports within 30 days of the date of this letter. Information on reporting requirements, blank reporting forms and instructions, and access to reports on file may be obtained from our website at www.dol.gov/olms. Completed reports should be submitted to:

U. S. Department of Labor
Office of Labor-Management Standards
200 Constitution Avenue, NW, Room N-5616
Washington, DC 20210
