RE: Pre-Petition

Situation Assessment

You want to provide a subject matter expert to educate and prepare your employees for union organizing activity. You want employees to understand that union cards are legal documents, that they need to protect their personal information and some of the common misunderstandings employees have about unions.

Proposed Intervention(s)

- Inoculation Meetings: For this option we will provide a Senior LRI consultant to conduct union "inoculation" meetings with your employees. We will provide at least one on-site facilitator to assess union vulnerability and communicate your message directly to employees.

Objectives

- Train employees on the facts about union cards, common tactics used to get employees to sign cards and facts they should consider before they ever sign a union card;
- Provide a credible subject matter expert who immediately increases your capacity to legally and persuasively respond to potential union organizing activity;
- Prevent NLRB petitions at company location(s) and train employees on the advantages of a direct relationship over a third party relationship.

Value to Organization

- You substantially reduce your company's vulnerability to union organizing activity by making it a "hard target" and difficult for an organizer to get cards signed using typical tactics;
- We will be able to assess overall vulnerability and by communicating directly with employees we get a solid read on whether union organizing activity has gained traction;
- You will have a more positive work environment where associates are treated with respect and managers are confident that they have the skills to earn the "direct relationship privilege."

Terms and Conditions

The fee for consulting is $3,000 per consultant per consulting day (plus travel expenses). Services provided by Ron Pfeifer will be billed at $375 per hour. The retainer amount is $36000. For purposes of this proposal a consulting day means each calendar day worked by each consultant. If more than one consultant is working on your case the parties understand and agree that multiple consulting days may be worked on each calendar day of the campaign.

Payment Terms

All fees are due upon the delivery of the consulting services and are non-refundable. The retainer amount above is due upon acceptance and before we will commence work. We will credit invoices for days worked against this retainer and you agree to refill the retainer in the amount above for each week of the assignment. You also agree to coordinate, arrange and pre-pay consultant's airfare, hotel accommodations and, if deemed necessary, a rental car. Any additional expenses incurred by consultant will be billed to you and you agree to pay those invoices upon receipt and you agree to settle those statements within 7 days and to provide a credit card for us to settle outstanding invoices not paid by that time. You agree and acknowledge that failure to pay fees or expenses associated with this project under these terms will result in reassignment of consultant(s), a penalty of the maximum allowable interest rate per month plus any costs we incur to collect an

You further acknowledge that no representation by LRI or its representatives were relied on by you or any member of your company in entering this agreement, and that this document represents the full understanding of the parties. You also acknowledge and agree that we have informed you of the obligation to report any direct persuader activity performed on your behalf to the United States Department of Labor by both our firm and your firm and that failure to timely file these reports can subject your company criminal penalties. Your payment, in the absence of your signature below, indicates your acceptance of this project and the terms and conditions as stated herein. The parties agree that Oklahoma law governs any dispute between them and to resolve any disputes by arbitration in Tulsa, Oklahoma under the American Arbitration Association rules.
