RE: Inoculation Meetings

Situation Assessment

You want to provide a subject matter expert to educate and prepare your employees for union organizing activity. You want employees to understand that union cards are legal documents, that they need to protect their personal information and some of the common misunderstandings employees have about unions.

Proposed Intervention(s)

Inoculation Meetings: For this option we will provide a Senior LRI consultant to conduct union "inoculation" meetings with your employees. We will provide at least one on-site facilitator to assess union vulnerability and communicate your message directly to employees.

Objectives

- Train employees on the facts about union cards, common tactics used to get employees to sign cards and facts they should consider before they ever sign a union card.
- Provide a credible subject matter expert who immediately increases your capacity to legally and persuasively respond to potential union organizing activity.
- Prevent NLRB petitions at company location(s) and train employees on the advantages of a direct relationship over a third party relationship.

Value to Organization

- You substantially reduce your company's vulnerability to union organizing activity by making it a "hard target" and difficult for an organizer to get cards signed using typical tactics; We will be able to assess overall vulnerability and by communicating directly with employees we get a solid read on whether union organizing activity has gained traction.
- You will have a more positive work environment where associates are treated with respect and managers are confident that they have the skills to earn the "direct relationship privilege."

Terms and Conditions

The fee for consulting is $3,000 per consultant per day (plus travel expenses). For purposes of this proposal a consulting day means each calendar day worked by each consultant. If more than one consultant is working on your case the parties understand and agree that multiple consulting days may be worked on each calendar day.

Payment Terms

All fees are due upon the delivery of the consulting services and are non-refundable. Consulting fees and expenses incurred by consultant will be billed to you and you agree to pay those invoices upon receipt and to settle those statements within 7 days and to provide a credit card for us to settle outstanding invoices not paid by that time. You also agree to coordinate, arrange and pre-pay consultant's airfare, hotel accommodations and, if deemed necessary, a rental car. You agree and acknowledge that failure to pay fees or expenses associated with this project under these terms will result in reassignment of consultant(s), a penalty of the maximum allowable interest rate per month plus any costs we incur to collect an outstanding balance, until all outstanding invoices are paid in full.

Indemnification

The parties agree and acknowledge that unions regularly file unfair labor practices as part of their campaign strategy to delay an election or harass an employer and that, in most cases, these charges are dismissed after investigation by the NLRB. For this reason the client agrees that it will have responsibility for all costs and fees associated with defending all unfair labor practice charges that are investigated by the NLRB in relation to the engagement covered by this agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties agree that should the NLRB issue an unfair labor practice complaint that alleges a specific unlawful action or statement of an LRI on-site consultant (as opposed to a statement or action made by an employee or agent of the client) and the NLRB states in a final ruling that an LRI on-site consultant's act or statement was the basis for an unfair labor practice then the parties agree that LRI shall have an obligation to indemnify and hold harmless the client for actual liabilities, costs and expenses incurred by client for the specific allegation of an improper act or statement from an LRI on-site consultant. LRI agrees to assist the client with any investigation of unfair labor practice(s) filed in connection with this engagement but the client acknowledges that any costs or fees associated with the investigation or possible settlement of unfair labor practices (except for the indemnification and hold harmless obligations as described above) shall be the sole responsibility of the client and shall not be the responsibility of LRI. The parties acknowledge and agree that, except as outlined above, the client releases, waives and agrees that LRI shall not be liable for any other costs, fees or damages of any kind whatsoever that are related to this engagement.

It is further understood that all materials included in or with the above referenced items or programs are fully covered and protected by federal copyright laws. Federal law provides civil and criminal penalties for the unauthorized reproduction, distribution or exhibition of protected products. Criminal copyright infringement is investigated by the FBI and may constitute a felony penalty of up to five years in prison and/or a $250,000 fine.

You further acknowledge that no representation by LRI or its representatives were relied on by you or any member of your company in entering this agreement, and that this document represents the full understanding of the parties. You also acknowledge and agree that we have informed you of the obligation to report any direct persuader activity performed on your behalf to the United States Department of Labor by both our firm and your firm and that failure to timely file these reports can subject your company criminal penalties. Your payment, in the absence of your signature below, indicates your acceptance of this project and the terms and conditions as stated herein. The terms and conditions on this proposal are good for 90 days from the date on this proposal unless specified otherwise. The parties agree that Oklahoma law governs any dispute between them and to resolve any disputes by arbitration in Tulsa, Oklahoma under the American Arbitration Association rules.
