RE: Inoculation Training

Situation Assessment

You also want to provide a subject matter expert to educate and prepare your employees for union organizing activity. You want employees to understand that union cards are legal documents, that they need to protect their personal information and some of the common misunderstandings employees have about unions.

Proposed Intervention(s)

 Inoculation Meetings: For this option 2 Senior LRI consultants will conduct union "inoculation" meetings with your employees. We will provide 2 on-site facilitators to assess union vulnerability and communicate your message directly to employees.

Objectives

- Train employees on the facts about union cards, common tactics used to get employees to sign cards and facts they should consider before they ever sign a union card;
- Provide a credible subject matter expert who immediately increases your capacity to legally and persuasively respond to potential union organizing activity;
- Prevent NLRB petitions at company location(s) and train employees on the advantages of a direct relationship over a third party relationship.

Value to Organization

- You substantially reduce your company's vulnerability to union organizing activity by making it a "hard target" and difficult for an organizer to get cards signed using typical tactics;
- We will be able to assess overall vulnerability and by communicating directly with employees we get a solid read on whether union organizing activity has gained traction;
- You will have a more positive work environment where associates are treated with respect and managers are confident that they have the skills to earn the "direct relationship privilege."

Terms and Conditions

The fee for daily consulting is $3,000 per day per consultant for 4 days (plus travel expenses). The retainer amount is $12000.

Payment Terms

All fees are due upon the delivery of the consulting services and are non-refundable. The retainer amount above is due upon acceptance and before we will commence work. We will credit invoices for days worked against this retainer and you agree to pay the remainder of consulting invoices upon the completion of services provided. You also agree to coordinate, arrange and pre-pay consultant's airfare, hotel accommodations and, if deemed necessary, a rental car. Any additional expenses incurred by consultant will be billed to you and you agree to pay those invoices upon receipt and you agree to settle those statements within 7 days and to provide a credit card for us to settle outstanding invoices not paid by that time. You agree and acknowledge that failure to pay fees or expenses associated with this project under these terms will result in reassignment of consultant(s), a penalty of the maximum allowable interest rate per month, plus any costs we incur to collect an outstanding balance, until all outstanding invoices are paid in full.
